Course Preparation

Because of the intense schedule for the Three Summers program, most courses require preparation prior to the start of classes. See special instructions in red below.

Ordering Textbooks

Books are available from the UConn Bookstore or an Internet provider.

EPSY 5194 Seminar

Required Textbook

1. Sternberg, R. J., & Davidson, J. E. (Eds.). (2005). Conceptions of giftedness (2nd ed.). Cambridge University Press. This book is available through https://amazon.com/, or other online retailers. Do not purchase the 1st edition for this course (although you may still wish to add it to your personal library); it is completely different!

Special instructions: Review syllabus and complete assignments due prior to your arrival on campus. Link to Del Siegle’s homepage here: http://delsiegle.education.uconn.edu/epsy-5194-seminar-on-the-gifted-and-talented-summer/.

EPSY 5740 Strategies for Differentiating the Grade Level Curriculum

Required Textbooks

Special instructions: Review syllabus, which is currently in draft form and subject to change. Required course materials should be obtained by or during the first week of class.

Link to Course Syllabi

EPSY 5194 (http://delsiegle.education.uconn.edu/epsy-5194-seminar-on-the-gifted-and-talented-summer/)